About this object

A spacious 5.5731 hectare plot is for sale in a strategic location - in the Rožiai district, in the city of Panevėžys. A great choice for the construction of residential buildings or investment. An agricultural plot is for sale in the Rožiai district, in a convenient and rapidly developing part of the city of Panevėžys - behind the "Rožynas" IKI shopping center. This is a great place for both the construction of residential buildings and long-term investment. The plot falls into the zone of urbanized and planned urbanized territories of the Panevėžys city general plan, and specifically - into the zone of low development intensity, where a change of purpose to housing estate is possible. This allows you to develop a block of individual houses, the construction of one- or two-family houses, form an array of several plots, or plan a project with a green zone and internal roads. 📄 Advantages: • Location: A quiet and cozy place
