About this object

Cozy, bright and warm apartment for rent on Kretingos Street. A sunny and bright apartment is located in a strategic and convenient location - next to the university, on Kretingos Street. The windows of the apartment on the top floor of the house offer a view of greenery and light, which you can enjoy on a cozy balcony. This house is perfectly suited for a couple or a small family: two sleeping areas are planned, one of which is in a separate room, a spacious living area, large wardrobes are installed, there is a pantry, so there will definitely be no shortage of space for things. The apartment has all the furniture and household appliances necessary for a comfortable life. The extremely convenient location ensures fast and smooth communication both by car, on foot or by public transport. The most beautiful places in the city are easily accessible, which will bring ease and everyday joy to your life, and independence to children.
