Building complex for sale in Salantai, Kretinga district: administrative building, laundry and educational workshop. The former Salanta special school, which ended its activities in 2010. The buildings were built, respectively, in 1967, 1968, and 1975 on the territory of the former manor. The manor buildings have not survived, only the basement of the manor, which is under the educational workshop, has survived. The complex is located in a very picturesque place: on a hill, next to the restored and newly arranged manor park, with the river Salantas flowing nearby. The complex is a great place to establish residential or medical facilities of various purposes: apartments, old people's homes, hotels, clinics. Salantai is a unique, old and venerable town with a rich history, located on both sides of the Salanta River, in the northeastern part of the territory of the Kretinga district mu...
